ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining in this vote.

□ 1849

Mr. ABERCROMBIE changed his vote from “no” to “aye.”

So the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated against:

Mr. BACHUS. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 328, had I been present, I would have voted “no.”

AUTHORIZING THE CLERK TO MAKE CORRECTIONS IN ENGROSSMENT OF H.R. 2410, FOREIGN RELATIONS AUTHORIZATION ACT, FISCAL YEARS 2010 AND 2011

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Clerk be authorized to make technical corrections in the engrossment of H.R. 2410, to include corrections in spelling, punctuation, section numbering and cross-referencing, and the insertion of appropriate headings.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. ADLER of New Jersey). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

CONAGRA EXPLOSION OF JUNE 9, 2009

(Mr. ETHERIDGE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Mr. Speaker, it is always difficult when tragedy rocks our small communities. Yesterday morning an explosion rocked the ConAgra Foods plant in Garner, North Carolina, causing the collapse of a significant portion of that structure and rupturing an ammonia tank. Many of my colleagues here saw that on the national news.

Many times it's nice to make national news, but yesterday was not the day to make national news. Three people tragically died: Barbara McLean Spears of Dunn, North Carolina; Lewis Junior Watson of Clayton, North Carolina; and Rachel Mae Poston Pulley of Clayton, North Carolina. Our sympathies go out to their families, friends and their loved ones. There were 40 other people injured, including four who suffered critical burns. Our thoughts and prayers are with them and their families as they recover.

As usual, when there is an emergency of this size in our community, our first responders—fire, police and EMS—were quick to the scene and prevented further loss of life or injury. Private citizens risked their well-being to come to the aid of their friends and neighbors. I'm proud of the North Carolinians who responded yesterday to the needs of these individuals and their families and those who will respond in the days to come.

Our small communities are enriched by businesses like ConAgra, which provides 900 jobs in this community. This one was the largest plant of ConAgra's plants. I am pleased to learn that they have set up a relief fund for the victims, and they are working to rebuild the plant. I ask my colleagues to join me in a moment of sympathy for these victims and their families.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members will rise for a moment of silence in sympathy.

IRAN'S PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION AND ITS NUCLEAR ASPIRATIONS

(Mr. MORAN of Kansas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MORAN of Kansas. This week we are experiencing Iran's presidential election. While the election is noteworthy, it will probably not have an impact on Iran's illegal nuclear program. Unlike in the United States, the President of Iran has minimal influence over the country's national security policies. Those decisions are controlled by Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khomeini, the unelected head of Iran's theocratic regime.

The supreme leader has vowed to continue Iran's nuclear program, and unfortunately we see evidence of this. Just last Friday, the International Atomic Energy Agency reported that Iran has sped up production of nuclear fuel and installed more centrifuges in advance of the election. Nuclear weapons experts say Iran now has enough centrifuge capacity to fuel up to two nuclear weapons a year.

Iran is determined to acquire nuclear weapons regardless of who is president. It would be a mistake for the Obama administration and this Congress to wait and see what direction Iran takes if a new president is elected because the course appears to be already determined. If we are going to engage Iran, we must do so right away, immediately, and back engagement with tougher actions.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO SLAIN OFFICER STEPHEN TYRONE JOHNS

(Mr. ENGEL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, the horrible events today at the Holocaust Memorial Museum, where Officer Stephen Tyrone Johns was fatally shot and killed, is something that should give us all pause for reflection. First of all, our hearts go out to the officer's family. He's truly a first defender and is someone who was protecting all of us.

Mr. Speaker, it reminded me of an incident just a few years ago where Officer Chestnut and Detective Gibson were shot right here at the Capitol by someone who was deranged. But the person who killed Officer Johns today was a hatemonger, hating Jews, hating blacks, hating everybody. And it's time for us to pause and say that all people of goodwill will not tolerate that kind of hatred.

There's another thing that we really need to take into account as well. And that is, when deranged people can get hold of guns, we really have a serious problem in this country. We need to do something about guns that are out there in the hands of deranged people, people who should never own guns. This person who fired that fatal shot was a known hatemonger, a white supremacist who served time in jail. How
